Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required by the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide this information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: http://www.fara.gov/. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: http://www.fara.gov/.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .49 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterespionage Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Footnote: Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means any activity which the person engaging in believes will, or that the person intends to, in any way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

This EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT CONTRACT is made as of 15 June 2009 between Qubad Talabani and the Kurdistan Regional Government ("Client") and Tom Squitieri and TS Navigations LLC ("Contractor").

SECTION ONE

Contractor will perform a variety of research, writing and editing, analysis and public relations consulting services. The list of duties may be amended upon mutual agreement of the parties.

SECTION TWO

Client will pay contractor the sum of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) per month for the work to be performed under this contract, according to the following schedule, beginning the month of June 2009, and continuing for 12 consecutive months.

Client shall pay the amounts agreed to herein upon receipt of invoices which shall be sent by Contractor, and Client shall pay the amount of such invoices to Contractor. The Contractor will be paid from a non-federal account and cannot be paid from monies secured from the federal government.

All normal and reasonable expenses incurred by the Contractor, such as but not limited to local and international telephone charges, travel, telecopy, and duplicating, will be passed on to the Client for approval and reimbursement. The Client will determine the manner and needs, such as receipts, required for such reimbursement. Expenses that exceed $200 will require written pre-approval by the Client. These expenses will be paid separately from the monthly professional services retainer payment.

SECTION THREE

The parties intend that an independent contractor-employer relationship will be created by this contract. Client is interested only in the results to be achieved, and the conduct and control of the work will lie solely with Contractor. Contractor is not to be considered an agent or employee of Client for any purpose, and the employees of Contractor are not entitled to any of the benefits that Client may provide for Client's employees. It is understood that Client does not agree to use Contractor exclusively. It is further understood that Contractor is free to contract for similar services to be performed for others while under contract with Client. Neither parties perceives any conflict of interest between our working arrangement and representation of other entities, and are not aware of our representation of any other that is adverse to the Client or the KRG in an unrelated matter.

SECTION FOUR

The work to be performed under this contract will be performed entirely at Contractor's risk, and Contractor assumes all responsibility for the condition of tools and equipment used in the performance of this contract. Contractor agrees to indemnify the Client for any and all liability or loss arising in any way out of the performance of this contract.

SECTION FIVE

Each party hereto ("Such Party") shall hold in trust for the other party hereto ("Such Other Party"), and shall not disclose to any non-party to the Agreement, any confidential information of such Other Party. Confidential information is information which relates to Such Other Party's research, development, trade secrets or business affairs, but does not include information which is generally known or easily ascertainable by non-parties of ordinary skill in computer systems design and programming.

Contractor hereby acknowledges that during the performance of this contract, the Contractor may learn or receive confidential Client information and therefore Contractor hereby confirms that all such information relating to the Client's business will be kept confidential by the Contractor, except to the extent that such information is required to be divulged to the Contractor's clerical or support staff or associates in order to enable Contractor to perform Contractor's contract obligation. Contractor further acknowledges that confidential information must be kept confidential even after contract between Client and Contractor is terminated or expires.

SECTION SIX

Either party may cancel this contract on 30 days' written notice; otherwise, the contract shall remain in force for a term of one year from June 1, 2010, unless amended by mutual agreement.

Any disputes that arise between the parties with respect to the performance of this contract shall be submitted to binding arbitration by the American Arbitration Association, to be determined and resolved by said Association under its rules and procedures in effect at the time of submission and the parties hereby agree to share equally in the costs of said arbitration.

The final arbitration decision shall be enforceable through the courts of the District of Columbia. In the event that this arbitration provision is held unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, then this contract shall be as binding and enforceable as if this section 7 were not a part hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have signed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.
